

Flow, my tears

John Dowland

Flow my tears, fall from your springs! Ex-iled for- ev- er Down, vain lights, shine you no more! No nights are dark e-let me mourn; Where night's black bird her sad in- fa- my sings, There nough for those That in des- pair their lost for- tunes de- plore. Light let me live for- - lorn. Nev- er may my woes be redoth but shame dis- - close. From the high- est spire of conliev- ed, since pi- ty is fled; And tears and sighs tent- ment My for- tune is thrown; And fear and grief and groans and pain my weary days, my weary days

The musical score for this section is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "and groans and pain my weary days, my weary days". The music features a variety of note values, including eighth, quarter, and half notes, as well as rests. The bass line includes a prominent eighth-note pattern in the left hand.
