

Stay, Time, awhile thy flying

John Dowland

5

Stay, Time, a- while thy fly- ing; - Stay and pi- - - ty me dy-
To whom shall I com- plain me, - When thus friends - - do dis- dain Tears but aug- ment this fu- el; - I feed by - - night, (O cru-

10

- ing. For Fates and friends have left me - And of com- - -
- me? 'Tis Time that must be- friend me, - Drown'd in sor- - -
- el). Light griefs can speak their plea- sure, - Mine are dumb - - fort be- reft - me. Come, come, come - mine eyes; bet- - ter to die bless- ed row to end - me. Come, come close - mine eyes; bet- - ter to die bless- ed pass- ing mea- - sure. Quick, quick, close - mine eyes; bet- - ter to die bless- ed

15

20

Than to - live, than to live thus dis- tress- ed.
Than to - live, than to live thus dis- tress- ed.
Than here to live, than here to live dis- tress- ed.